Support for youths

The employer actively encourages youth aged 16 to 30, including vulnerable youth and youth facing barriers to employment, to apply for this position. Applications are welcomed from newcomer youth, Indigenous youth, youth with disabilities, lone-parent youth, youth who have not completed high school, and youth living in rural or remote communities. Applicants must meet Ontario’s legal minimum-age requirements for construction work and be able to perform the essential duties safely. All qualified applicants will receive fair and equal consideration.

The employer supports young workers by providing workplace orientation, on-the-job training, appropriate supervision, mentorship, personal protective equipment and instruction in safe material-handling practices. Heavy materials will be handled using required team-lifting procedures and/or appropriate mechanical equipment. Youth employment agencies, community organizations, schools and employment programs are encouraged to refer qualified young applicants for this permanent employment opportunity. This employer promotes equal employment opportunities for all job applicants, including those self-identifying as a member of these groups:
