Work location Private residence in Markham, Ontario
Terms Permanent, full-time; 30 hours per week; Monday to Friday (2:30PM to 8:30PM)
Wage $20.00 per hour | 1 vacancy

Duties and Responsibilities
• Assume full responsibility for the child during the parents' absence and maintain a safe, healthy and nurturing home environment.
• Supervise and care for the child, including bathing, dressing, feeding, diaper changes and age-appropriate toilet training.
• Prepare and serve nutritious meals and snacks for the child and follow the family's established meal and nap routines.
• Organize age-appropriate activities such as reading, games, crafts, outdoor play and local community programs.
• Support the child's emotional, social, physical and intellectual development; teach appropriate hygiene and social behaviour.
• Follow the parents' instructions regarding routines, behaviour guidance and childcare preferences.
• Accompany the child to appointments, parks, playgroups, lessons and other activities when required.
• Perform light housekeeping duties directly related to the child, including the child's laundry, dishes, toys and play areas.
• Maintain daily information about the child's meals, naps, activities and general well-being and communicate regularly with the parents.
• Care for the child during minor illness and respond appropriately to emergencies in accordance with the parents' directions.

Qualifications
• Completion of secondary school.
• At least one year of childcare, nanny or caregiver experience is required; experience caring for infants or toddlers is preferred.
• Childcare training and First Aid and CPR certification are assets but are not mandatory.
• Ability to communicate independently in English; must be dependable, patient, organized and attentive to the child's needs.

Benefits and Working Conditions

• Private emergency medical insurance during any period in which the employee is not covered by provincial health insurance.

• Vacation pay in accordance with Ontario employment standards.

• This is not a mandatory live-in position. Any accommodation arrangement must be voluntary and confirmed separately.
